Terms and Conditions

59 DEGREES NORTH (v. 2026_01)

1. Definitions

The Customer refers to the legal entity or private individual who makes the reservation and is responsible for payment.
59 DEGREES NORTH refers to the company providing the RIB charter services and responsible for the execution of the event.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, these Terms and Conditions apply to all bookings and services provided by 59 DEGREES NORTH.

2. Safety

Safety on board 59 DEGREES NORTH's vessels is carefully planned and fully compliant with the regulations and requirements of the Swedish Transport Agency (Transportstyrelsen). Our objective is to ensure that all passengers feel safe and comfortable throughout the journey.

Before each trip, all passengers are provided with appropriate safety equipment, including life jackets and either flotation overalls or wind jackets depending on the season and weather conditions. Comfort equipment such as gloves, hats, and goggles may also be provided to ensure a safe and pleasant experience, even in challenging weather.

Each trip begins with a mandatory safety briefing during which the skipper explains essential safety procedures and passenger responsibilities. Participation in the trip requires compliance with these instructions at all times.

3. The Vessels

All vessels operated by 59 DEGREES NORTH are CE-certified (Category B) and equipped in accordance with the Swedish Transport Agency's requirements for vessels in commercial operation.

4. Passengers and Insurance

All passengers on board 59 DEGREES NORTH's vessels are covered by the legally required passenger insurance for the duration of the trip, in accordance with Swedish law.

5. Skippers

All skippers operating on behalf of 59 DEGREES NORTH have extensive maritime experience and hold all certifications and qualifications required by the Swedish Transport Agency for commercial vessel operations.

6. Passenger Responsibilities and Right to Deny Boarding

Passengers must inform the skipper prior to departure of any relevant medical conditions, including but not limited to pregnancy or conditions affecting the neck, back, hips, knees, or balance.

59 DEGREES NORTH reserves the right to deny boarding or terminate participation without refund if a passenger:

- Fails to disclose relevant medical information
- Is intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- Behaves aggressively, recklessly, or in a way that may endanger themselves, other passengers, the crew, or the vessel

All assessments are made on site by the skipper. The skipper's decision is final.

7. Age and Physical Requirements

Participation in RIB charter activities requires a normal level of physical ability and health suitable for high-speed boating in open water.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing:

- Passengers must meet any minimum age and/or height requirements communicated by 59 DEGREES NORTH prior to booking
- Minors must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian
- Pregnant individuals and passengers with medical conditions affecting the neck, back, hips, knees, or balance must inform the skipper prior to departure

The skipper reserves the right to deny boarding or participation where a passenger is assessed as unable to safely complete the trip. Such decisions are made solely in the interest of safety and do not constitute grounds for a refund.

8. Personal Belongings and Valuables

Passengers bring personal belongings, including but not limited to mobile phones, cameras, electronic devices, bags, and valuables, entirely at their own risk.

59 DEGREES NORTH accepts no liability for loss of or damage to personal property caused by water exposure, weather conditions, vessel movement, or other circumstances during the trip.

Passengers are strongly advised to:

- Leave unnecessary valuables on shore, and
- Use waterproof cases or appropriate protective equipment when bringing electronic devices on board.

9. Bookings, Payment, and Cancellations

9.1 Booking Information

The booking must include the number of participants and a designated contact person. Any special requirements must be communicated prior to departure.
Under no circumstances may the number of passengers exceed the number agreed upon in the booking.

9.2 Booking Confirmation

Bookings must be confirmed by the Customer via email to hello@59degreesnorth.se.
For private individuals, full payment must be received no later than one (1) week before the event, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

9.3 Payment Methods

Payment may be made via:

- Bank transfer (Swedbank)
- BankGiro
- Swish
- Swedbank Pay (supporting major credit cards, Apple Pay, Google Pay, etc.)

9.4 Cancellation by the Customer

- Cancellation less than four (4) weeks before the agreed date: 50% of the agreed price is payable
- Cancellation less than one (1) week before the agreed date: 100% of the agreed price is payable

10. Prices and VAT

All stated prices are exclusive of VAT.

VAT is charged as follows:

- 6% for RIB charter services
- 12% or 25% for other services, depending on applicable regulations

The agreed price applies to the booked event. If the event is delayed, extended, or altered due to the Customer, 59 DEGREES NORTH's standard hourly rates shall apply.

11. Force Majeure and Weather-Related Cancellations

59 DEGREES NORTH reserves the right to cancel, postpone, shorten, or modify an event without liability if circumstances beyond its reasonable control make it impossible or unsafe to conduct the trip. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, adverse or severe weather conditions, mechanical failure, illness, authority decisions, or other unforeseen events.

The skipper has full authority to assess safety and weather conditions and may modify routes, speed, destination, or terminate the trip at any time. The skipper's assessment is final.

If an event is cancelled prior to departure, the Customer is entitled to a full refund or rescheduling. No refunds apply for route changes or early termination during the trip.

12. Liability Limitation

Participation in RIB charter activities involves inherent risks associated with maritime and high-speed boating. By participating, passengers acknowledge and accept these risks.

To the fullest extent permitted under Swedish law, 59 DEGREES NORTH shall not be liable for personal injury, death, loss of property, or other damages resulting from inherent risks, weather conditions, or safety-based decisions.

13. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with Swedish law.
Any disputes shall be adjudicated by a Swedish court of competent jurisdiction.

14. Photography and Marketing Consent

Photographs and/or video recordings may be taken during events operated by 59 DEGREES NORTH.

Unless the Customer or any passenger objects in writing prior to the event, 59 DEGREES NORTH is granted the right to use such material for marketing, promotional, and communication purposes across digital and printed channels, without compensation.

Reasonable efforts will be made to respect objections, but complete exclusion cannot be guaranteed in shared or public settings.

15. Data Protection (GDPR)

59 DEGREES NORTH processes personal data in accordance with applicable data protection legislation, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Personal data is used solely for the purpose of administering bookings, fulfilling contractual obligations, and, where applicable, marketing communications. Customers have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of their personal data.

16. Modification of Terms and Conditions

59 DEGREES NORTH reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time.
The version published on the website at the time of booking shall apply to the agreement.

17. Severability

If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
